

Smithville High School

Daily Announcements

Tuesday, November 23, 2021

<Recite the Pledge of Allegiance>

Attention Ms. Small, Ms. McCrary, and Mr. Spitsnogle's Warrior Time Students: Please report to Mr. Mast in the Cafeteria for Warrior Time today. Thanks!

The Smithville speech and debate team had another successful weekend on November 20th. At North Kansas City's varsity invitational, Morgen Foster and Nate Kershaw placed 3rd in Public Forum. Claire Albright also placed 3rd in Lincoln Douglas debate. Congratulations, debaters!

There will be a Pep Bus available for SHS students to go to the Football game this Friday. You must purchase your ticket at <http://mshsaa.org> before signing up for the bus. The sign up sheet is in the office. Bus leaves SHS at 8am sharp; you need to be here by 7:45am.

Army Recruiters will be in the cafeteria during lunch shifts today to offer information about joining up.

Are you looking for something fun to do on Saturday night? The Wrestling program is having an all-you-can-eat Taco Bar and Mouse Race Fundraiser at the Smithville American Legion. The fun starts at 7pm and it costs $25 to enter. Check the flyer on the SHS website for more information.

Are you looking for a supportive environment where you can proudly be yourself? Join the Smithville Gay Straight Alliance. Anyone and everyone is welcome to join us! Meetings are held every other Tuesday from 2:45 to 3:45 in Mrs. Doubenmier's room, 225. There is a meeting today, and also December 7th. Contact Mrs. Doubenmier or Ms. Sapp for more details.

Word of the Day: supplement noun sup·ple·ment 1. something that is added to something else in order to make it complete 2. an extra part that is added to a book or newspaper 3. an angle or arc that when added to a given angle or arc equals 180°

Enjoy the rest of the week off and have a Happy Thanksgiving!