Suicide Awareness

Did you know that if you text HOME to 741741 when you are feeling really depressed or suicidal, a crisis worker will text with you? Many people, especially young kids/teens, do not like talking on the phone and are more comfortable texting. This is a free service run by The Crisis Text Line.

This is real. Everyone needs an avenue for help and support.

Email photos to kruegerc@smithville.k12.mo.us. Sending a digital copy to her would be the easiest, however, you may also bring them in to be scanned if necessary. Get them turned in as soon as you can please. Thanks for your help.
