

This document will provide an overview of how to login to Windows 7 as a substitute.

On the login screen, you will see a place for username and password.

Username: substitute

Password: Can be obtained from secretary in front office